

Name: _____

Date: _____

1. What are the main differences between the students from India, China and the US?
2. What are some similarities?
3. Describe the work/study habits of the students?
4. Do the students share the same goals for their future?
5. Which students seem to be more focused on achieving their goals?
6. The American students have a more relaxed attitude towards their education. Why do you think this is so? Do you believe that most students in the US feel this way about their education?
7. What does the term Global Economy mean?
8. How does the Global Economy affect you and your family?

15. Do you think the Indian and Chinese students are more intelligent than the American students?

16. What do you think will eventually happen to all of these students after they attend university?

17. Even if all of them go to college and do well academically, do you think all of them will get high-paying jobs and be happy?

18. Do you think it is better to have choice in a profession or have your parents or someone else choose your profession or field of study for you?

19. Do you think it is better to not make too many plans about your life while in high school and just allow life to unfold spontaneously for you? Why or Why not?

20. Do you think it is necessary to spend 3 to 4 hours every night doing homework in order to be a success in life? Why or Why not?

21. What did you learn from this film, and how do you think it may or may not influence your study habits and your outlook about your future?

